FOREWORD

This OFFICIAL RESULTS BOOK of the 23rd Southeast Asian Games is a product of love by the staff, results coordinators and volunteers of the Results Management Committee. In spite the limited resources and some technical problems, results were collected, verified, printed and distributed after each competition day.

Thanks to the efforts of the staff members who endured sleepless nights, minor discrepancies in the medal tally due to computer glitches have been corrected and the results have been streamlined to be user-friendly even for non-sports specialists.

After consultation with the different National Sports Associations this OFFICIAL RESULTS BOOK is deemed to be complete, although the possibility of misspelled names or minor discrepancies may occur.

Special thanks is given to those who contributed materials for this book especially to the Results Management Committee.

Message from the President of the Philippines

MALACAÑANG PALACE
Manila

My warmest felicitations to the Philippine Southeast Asian Games Organizing Committee (PhilSOC) as you publish the Official Report Book of the 23rd Southeast Asian Games.

As the largest and most significant multi-sport event in the region conceptualized in line with the ASEAN vision of promoting friendship and solidarity among the member countries, this highly anticipated affair brings together the best and the brightest in the region in an amazing display of skill and strength. While this historic event boosts the competence of our own Filipino athletes in various sports competitions, it will also show to the world our unique brand of hospitality and would spotlight our beautiful tourist spots.

This friendly and healthy competition among our athletes and their counterparts in the region would definitely strengthen our relations with our neighbors. This will also cement the bond of our friendship among the athletes in the region.

I wish the organizers and the participating athletes a successful competition. I hope that, at the end of the tournament, you will all be closer to one another.

More power and Mabuhay!

Farewell Speech of the President

Philippine Southeast Asian Games Organizing Committee
Southeast Asian Games Federation Council

WE GATHER ONCE MORE TO CLOSE RANKS. TO GO BEYOND CONTEST AND ARRIVE AT THE HEART OF THE SOUTHEAST ASIAN GAMES – THE BROTHERHOOD OF NATIONS. IT IS NOW TIME TO REST, TO SAVOR THE FRUITS OF OUR LABOR, TO LOOK FORWARD TO THE NEW FRIENDSHIPS WE HAVE ESTABLISHED. NOW IS OUR MOMENT OF THANKSGIVING.

IF VICTORY IS THE CENTRAL PURPOSE OF THE SOUTHEAST ASIAN GAMES, THEN THERE WILL BE ONE WINNER AND TEN LOSERS. A BROTHERHOOD OF NATIONS CANNOT SUSTAIN ITSELF ON A FORMULA WHICH GENERATES TEN LOSERS FOR EVERY WINNER. THAT IS WHY VICTORY WAS NOT, IS NOT, AND MUST NEVER BE THE PREMIER REASON FOR THE GAMES.

WHO REMEMBERS THE WINNERS AND LOSERS OF THE SOUTHEAST ASIAN GAMES WHICH HAVE BEEN HELD 23 TIMES? WE REMEMBER BUT A FEW. SO MUCH SO THAT WE HOLD CEREMONIES, INDIVIDUALLY AND COLLECTIVELY, TO REMIND OURSELVES OF THE PAST HEROES WHO DID OUR COUNTRIES PROUD. IN THE END, WHAT WE DO NOT FORGET IS SOUTHEAST ASIA, ONE SOUTHEAST ASIA, OUR BROTHERHOOD OF NATIONS!

I AM PROUD OF WHAT FILIPINO ATHLETES ACHIEVED IN THESE GAMES. THEY PERFORMED BEYOND THE RESOURCES AND FACILITIES GIVEN THEM. THEY HAVE PERFORMED FROM THEIR HEARTS, FOR THEIR PEOPLE. OF THAT, I AM PROUD. BUT I WAS JUST AS PROUD WHEN THEY PLAYED AND WON LESS MEDALS IN THE PAST, BECAUSE THEY PERFORMED ALSO FROM THEIR HEARTS, ALSO FOR THEIR PEOPLE. IN THE END, I AM PROUDEST WHEN THEY STAND OUT TO THE YOUTH OF OUR NATION AND BE THE INSPIRATION FOR SPORTSMANSHIP, FOR PATRIOTISM, FOR HEROISM BEYOND THE MEDALS THEY WIN.

MY ONLY REGRET IS THAT OUR NATION AND PEOPLE COULD NOT GIVE AS MUCH AS OUR HEARTS WANTED TO GIVE. IT IS OUR TRADITION OF HOSPITALITY, WHICH IS MOST IMPORTANT TO US THAT WE HAVE SHARED WITH YOU WITHOUT CONDITIONS. AND THAT IS WHAT WE TREASURE MORE THAN THE VICTORY IN THE GAMES.

IT HAS BEEN OUR PRIVILEGE AND OUR JOY TO HAVE OFFERED OUR NATION AND OUR PEOPLE AS HOME AND FAMILY TO OUR BROTHERS IN THE REGION. THAT IS WHY WE ACCEPT THIS MOMENT AS ONE GREAT THANKSGIVING. IN A WORLD THAT IS WOUNDED BY MANY CONFLICTS, WE ARE IN THANKSGIVING THAT WE ARE A BROTHERHOOD, AND THAT THE SOUTHEAST ASIAN GAMES MAKE BROTHERHOOD STRONGER.

OUR PEOPLE THANK YOU FOR COMING. OUR PEOPLE THANK YOU FOR SHARING YOUR BEST WITH US. OUR PEOPLE WISH TO HAVE YOU STAY LONGER, ENJOY LONGER, AND BUILD MORE FRIENDSHIPS. BUT YOUR HOMES AND FAMILIES AWAIT YOU, AND OUR MOMENT OF THANKSGIVING IS ALSO A MOMENT FOR FAREWELL.

MAY ALL OF YOU FARE WELL IN YOUR JOURNEYS UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN IN THAILAND.

ONE HERITAGE, ONE SOUTHEAST ASIA! NABUHAY!

THE XXIII SOUTHEAST ASIAN GAMES

LOGO

ETHNIC-MASKED ATHLETE

The festive, ethnic-masked athlete, which is the official logo of the XXIII Southeast Asian Games symbolizes the spirit of the Games, which PHILSOC seeks to foster throughout the biennial event, hopeful that its jovial mood shall permeate every activity where athletes take part.

“The world of sports is a world of jovial adventure, huge challenges and humbling rewards”

Drawn in yellow, the mask showcases gaiety and splendor, as it shields from view an athlete’s mixed emotions when he runs through the various phases of a grueling sporting event. Pain, suffering, anxiety – all these are downplayed to emphasize the friendship and sportsmanship that must prevail over a momentary heady triumph.

The logo makes use of the festival mask similar to those found in most Southeast Asian Countries. It represents the many different cultures that will come together for the Games. At the same time the mask captures the exuberant spirit and hospitality of the Filipinos.

Eleven brightly colored poles – drawn in blue, yellow, red hues interspersed with white – are integrated as part of a headgear that matches the happy mask.

Emblazoned on the forehead are ten inter-linked rings, the logo of the Southeast Asian Games Federation.

MASCOT

GILAS

The Philippine Eagle (Pithecophaga jefferyi), formerly known as the Monkey-eating Eagle, is one of the world's largest eagles, distinct for the majestic plumage on top of its head. It is undoubtedly the tallest and holds the world record for wingspan in any eagle... it can exceed eight feet. The eagle preys on small animals, including monkeys.

The Philippine Eagle represents beauty, grace and strength of the people and nation of the Philippines. It captures the winning spirit of all participating athletes.

GILAS is the name of our mascot. Gilas is a Filipino word which means alert, wise, smart, strong, clever, chic, stylish, energetic, brisk and fresh.

History of the Southeast Asian Games

During the Third Asian Games in Tokyo, Thailand invited Burma, Laos, and Malaya (later Malaysia) to a discussion on 22nd May 1958, on the need of having a small and regular biennial Games amongst the Southeast Asian Peninsular Countries.

The countries of this region have many similarities in sports participation, as well as almost equal standards of sports achievements, and such an event would serve as a stepping stone for athletes of this area, to a better performance in the Asian and Olympic Games. The gathering of the finest talents and youths of these countries would also foster a closer relationship and a better understanding amongst the peoples of the region.

The meeting resulted in the formation of the SEAP Games Federation in June 1959. The founder members were Thailand, Burma, Cambodia, Laos, Malaya and Vietnam. Hence, there are six interlocked rings which formed the Games Logo. Singapore became the seventh member when they became an independent Republic in August 1965.

Thailand was given the honor of hosting the first SEAP Games from 12 to 17 December 1959 with none other than King Bhumibol Adulyadaj opening the meet at the new National Stadium in Bangkok, Thailand. More than 650 athletes and officials from Burma, Laos, Malaysia Singapore, Vietnam and Thailand met in friendly competition which ended very successfully. The sports then included athletics, badminton, basketball, boxing, cycling, football, lawn tennis, shooting, table tennis, swimming, volleyball and weightlifting.

"The honor of holding the SEAP Games shall be entrusted to the organization of each country in rotation in alphabetical order". Thus the hosting of the second SEAP Games in 1961 was entrusted to Burma which did a splendid job at the Aungmye Memorial Stadium, in Rangoon from 11 - 16 December 1961. A total of about 800 athletes and officials took part in the Games.

The 1963 SEAP Games which was scheduled to be held in Cambodia was not organized because of unsettling conditions in the country.

Laos, next on the list for the third SEAP Games, was unable to host because of financial difficulties. Malaysia took over, and hosted the Games in Kuala Lumpur from 14 - 21 December 1965 with 1,300 athletes and officials in attendance. It was the beginning of a continuous biennial celebration of the regional sporting event.

The fourth SEAP Games was held in Bangkok as Cambodia had declined to be the host. It was held from 9 - 16 December 1967 where about 1200 athletes and officials took part in the Games.

Vietnam the host for the next SEAP Games, informed the SEAP Games Council that they were unable to stage the Games due to problems in the country and the fifth SEAP Games was held in Rangoon from 6 - 13 December 1969. It was Kuala Lumpur's turn to hold the sixth SEAP Games from 11 - 18 December 1971.

Singapore became the host for the first time during the seventh edition of the SEAP Games in 1973. In 1975 the Games went on as scheduled hosted by Bangkok, Thailand for the third time. But this year only Burma, Malaysia, Singapore and Thailand participated. Cambodia, Laos and Vietnam were under much political and economic strain.

At that juncture, the members of the SEAP Games Federation became increasingly aware of the inability of some member countries to participate in the Games.

History of SEA Games... continuation

In order to arrest the situation and save the Games, Malaysia proposed that Brunei, Indonesia and the Philippines be invited to join the Federation and volunteered to organize the next Games with their inclusion. This was accepted. On February 5, 1977 Indonesia and the Philippines became members of the Federation. Brunei joined in November of the same year.

There was also a change in the name of Federation with the dropping of the word "Peninsula" but the emblem and the sequential numbering of the Games would remain to perpetuate the objectives, aspirations and contribution of the founders of the Federation.

With those changes the ninth SEA Games was held in Kuala Lumpur from 19 – 26 November 1977 with seven countries participating in it.

Having joined the SEA Games Federation, Indonesia became host for the tenth SEA Games which was held from 21 – 30 September 1979 in Jakarta and bagged the most gold medals. The Philippines took on the eleventh SEA Games in Manila from 6 – 15 December 1981 with over 2,000 athletes and officials participating in a 10-day festival declared open by then President Ferdinand E. Marcos.

The twelfth series was Brunei's turn in 1983. But due to preparations for its upcoming independence celebration, it begged off and Singapore took up from 28 May to 6 June, 1983. The thirteenth was held in Bangkok in 1985 while the fourteenth went back to Jakarta in 1987 and fifteenth Games was held in Malaysia on August 20 – 31, 1989.

On its second round the Philippines, in spite of the calamities that affected the nation because of the Mount Pinatubo eruption, hosts the sixteenth SEA Games, scheduled from November 24 – December 5, 1991. Over 3,700 participants competed, with the Philippines almost winning the overall championships with just one gold medal separating the hosts from the eventual winner Indonesia. It was a good harvest for the Philippines-- winning 91 gold medals in the year 1991.

The seventeenth edition was hosted by Singapore in 1993 and the rotation continued.

Two years ago, Vietnam, a small country still struggling to rise from the ravages of war, took the challenge of hosting the SEAG and passed it with flying colors. The Vietnam SEA Games was held amid a sea of colors and pageantry, reportedly at a cost of $400 million dollars. The Vietnamese people built new stadiums and welcomed and bid farewell to their guests with a display of fireworks never before seen in the history of the Games. Vietnam's effort paid off. From no. 4 in the 2001 Kuala Lumpur SEAG, the Vietnamese climbed to the top of the medal ladder with 158 gold medals and 346 medals overall, compared to Thailand who only amassed 90 golds, and followed by Indonesia with 55. The Philippine athletes, meanwhile, climbed to no. 4 from no.5 with 48 golds, edging out Malaysia with 43 gold medals. Singapore had 30, Myanmar got 18 followed by Laos, Cambodia and Brunei with one gold apiece. Timor Leste, the latest addition to the SEA Games Family, failed to win any medal, but their participation was a welcome addition to the unification of the Southeast Asian Nations.

Today, a fresh challenge is upon the Philippines. After 14 long years, the Southeast Asian Games has returned-- bigger, bolder and brimming with new heroes and even newer hopes.

It has hardly been easy, but the torch that lights the SEA Games has faithfully been kept aflame by its member countries. In its light continues to live the friendship, mutual trust, peace and prosperity that is the theme of the Southeast Asian Games.

ABOUT THE SOUTHEAST ASIAN GAMES

The Southeast Asian Games is the largest and most significant multi-sport event in the region and is held every two years to enable athletes to meet in friendly competition, as well as to foster goodwill, friendship and solidarity in alignment with the aims and aspirations of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN).

The SEA Games originated from the SEAP (South East Asian Peninsular) Games which were inaugurated in Thailand in 1959, with just six participating countries- Burma (Myanmar), Laos, Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand and Vietnam. The SEAP was conceptualized by Laung Sukhumnaipradit, the then Vice-President of the Thailand Olympic Committee. He firmly believed that a regional sports event, similar to the Asian Games or the Olympic Games, would help promote cooperation, understanding and relations among countries in the region. His efforts were rewarded after two years of lobbying.

The SEAP Games continued to be held biennially until the Philippines and Indonesia joined the Games which was then renamed SEA Games at its 9th meet in Malaysia in 1977, with the admission of Brunei Darussalam as well. The name has since been officially adopted and the Games have now become the most important sports event in the region. Membership in the SEA Games Federation increased to eleven, with the inclusion of Cambodia and then the last country to join- Timor Leste.

MISSION:

To strengthen political, economic, and social ties with the countries of the region.

VISION:

To develop tourism and increase revenue earnings.
To prepare itself to organize and host bigger events like the Asian Games and the Olympic Games.
